

Global Perspectives

Year 3

Cambridge Primary

Student Book

Global Perspectives • Year 3

Student Book • The Shared Garden • Ages 7-8 • Cambridge Primary

Ask. Listen. Compare. Act.

About this book

Global Perspectives, Year 3, Student Book. Part of the Prime Books Subject Series for Cambridge Primary.

This book is set in a shared garden. Six neighbours work one patch of ground together: they plant, they argue gently about where the beans should go, they notice what the others are doing, and they find out that a job looks different depending on which end of the watering can you are holding. That is the whole subject in one picture.

Across six units you will look at play, at what people need, at screens, at talking and listening, at how things and people travel, and at families and celebrations. Each time you will do the same four things: ask, listen, compare, act.

Imprint

Global Perspectives • Year 3 • Student Book

Prime Books • an imprint of Prime School • www.primeschool.pt

First edition, 2026.

© Prime School 2026. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form without the prior written permission of Prime School.

Written and produced in Portugal. British English throughout. Metric units, euros and the 24 hour clock are used, as they are in Portuguese schools.

Cover and interior illustration produced through the Prime Books image pipeline. The Prime School logo is composited from the official master artwork.

Editorial Board

The Prime Books Subject Series has been developed under the guidance of the Pedagogical Academic Group for each subject and coordinated by the Pedagogical Team of Prime School.

This publication reflects our shared commitment to academic excellence, educational quality, professional integrity, and the continuous advancement of teaching and learning. Through the collective expertise and dedication of our educators, we aim to provide meaningful and engaging learning resources that support students' academic growth.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the Pedagogical Department and the Content Creation Team of Prime School for their invaluable contributions, dedication, and collaborative efforts in making this publication possible.

Introduction

Welcome to Year 3 Global Perspectives.

This is a book about looking outwards. Not looking down at a page, or up at a teacher, but out at other people, and then back at yourself to see whether you still think the same thing.

You will notice something early on. Most of the questions in this book do not have one right answer waiting at the back. Some do: if you count how many pupils in your class walk to school, there is a number and it is either right or wrong. Others do not. Whether a village should spend its money on a football pitch or on a bus is not that kind of question. You will meet both kinds, and part of the work is telling them apart.

Here is how the book runs.

Six units. Each one opens with a picture and a big question, and tells you what you will be able to do by the end of it. Inside a unit there are numbered topics, such as 1.1 and 1.2, so you always know where you are. The page number is at the bottom of every page, and the contents at the front tells the truth about where everything is.

Four moves, over and over. Ask a question worth asking. Listen to what someone else says, including the part you did not expect. Compare what you heard with what you already thought. Act: do something small and useful with what you now know.

Three review spreads, one at the end of each term, to look back at what you found out.

Answers at the back, for the questions that have answers. Try first. An answer you have argued your way to is worth ten you have copied.

One last thing. In this book you will be asked to talk to real people: pupils in your class, your teacher, an adult at home, someone who works nearby. Real people are not homework. Ask them when they have time, listen properly to what they say, and thank them. That is not politeness for its own sake. It is how you get a real answer instead of a quick one.

Contents

The Shared Garden · Global Perspectives Year 3

Welcome	4
How to use this book	11
Unit 1 • Sports and recreation	13
1.1 My favourite sport and game	15
1.2 Indoor and outdoor games	16
1.3 Traditional games around the world	18
1.4 Why do we exercise?	20
1.5 Playing safely	23
1.6 Teamwork in sports	25
1.7 Sports in our community	27
1.8 Different people, different sports	29
1.9 Recreation and free time	31
1.10 Weather and sports	32
1.11 Healthy habits through sports	34
Unit 2 • Rich and poor	39
2.1 What do we need to live?	40
2.2 Needs and wants	42
2.3 Different homes around the world	44
2.4 Jobs and helping families	45
2.5 Communities helping together	47
2.6 Saving and spending wisely	49
Term 1 review	54

Unit 3 • Digital world	57
3.1 What is the digital world?	58
3.2 Digital devices around us	60
3.3 Technology around the world	62
3.4 Learning with technology	64
3.5 Staying safe online	66
3.6 Being kind online (digital citizenship)	68
3.7 Screen time control	70
3.8 Designing the technology of the future	72
Unit 4 • Improving communication	77
4.1 What is communication?	78
4.2 Speaking and listening	80
4.3 Verbal and non-verbal communication	81
4.4 Feelings and communication	83
4.5 Communication around the world	85
4.6 Solving problems through communication	87
4.7 Digital communication	89
Term 2 review	94
Unit 5 • Moving goods and people	97
5.1 Ways we travel	98
5.2 Moving goods	100
5.3 Land, water and air transport	101
5.4 Safe travel	103
5.5 Transport around the world	105
5.6 Helping the environment	107
5.7 Community helpers and transport	109

5.8 Design future transport	111
Unit 6 • Family, friends, community and culture	117
6.1 My family	118
6.2 Different families around the world	120
6.3 Being a good friend	121
6.4 Our school and local community	123
6.5 Working together to build a caring community	125
6.6 Celebrations and traditions	127
6.7 Respecting different cultures	129
Term 3 review	134
Answers	140
Word list	136
Sources and references	137
For teachers	143

Who you will meet

Six gardeners share the patch on the cover of this book, and they turn up all the way through it. They are not teachers and they will not tell you the answer.

- Bento, the badger in the denim jacket, has grown things for longer than anyone. When something needs explaining, Bento explains it.
- Matilde, the fox in the olive coat, asks the question everyone else was walking past.
- Tomás, the rabbit, counts things. How many, how long, how far, how much.
- Leonor, the smallest rabbit, in the mustard jumper, asks why it has to be that way at all. Quite often nobody has a good answer.
- Gonçalo, the hedgehog in the knitted jumper, thinks about turns, fairness and whether everybody can join in.
- Inês, the squirrel in the rust jacket, remembers what happened last time and writes things down.

How to use this book

Every page is built out of the same few panels. Learn them once and you will know what a page wants from you.

Panel	What to do
Look around	Stop and notice something before any teaching starts
Out in the world	A real situation, somewhere in the world or down your street
Do you remember?	A quick check of something you already know
Here is how it works	The teaching. Short on purpose. Read it twice
Watch me try one	One example, done slowly, so you can see the thinking
Your turn	Numbered practice, with room to write
See it their way	Two or three people who do not agree, all making sense
Ask first	How to ask a real person a real question, kindly
From the potting shed	A true fact worth keeping
Go a little further	For when you have finished and want more
Dig deeper	The harder task. Take your time
Along the way	The unit project, made over several lessons
How did it grow?	Marking your own progress honestly
What I can do now	The tick list at the end of a unit
New words	The words from the unit, with what they mean

Two rules about writing in this book. Write in pencil, because you are allowed to change your mind, and that is the whole point of the subject. And where a page asks what you think, there is no wrong answer, only a lazy one.

Getting set up

You do not need much for this subject, which is one of the nice things about it.

Every lesson: this book, a pencil, an eraser and a ruler.

Often useful: coloured pencils, scissors, glue, and a notebook for the longer projects.

Sometimes, and always with your teacher: a tape measure, a stopwatch or a classroom clock, and a class device for looking something up.

How the room runs. Most of the work in this book happens in pairs or in small groups, because comparing is hard on your own. When you are working with someone else, three things matter: one person talks at a time, everybody gets a turn, and you say what you think even when the rest of the group thinks something else. Disagreeing well is a skill, and this is the subject where you practise it.

When you go and ask someone. Several topics send you to ask a real person a question. Ask your teacher first, always. Ask at a time that suits the person you are asking. If they would rather not answer, that is their right, and the correct response is thank you.

UNIT 1

1

Sports and recreation

What we play, why we move, and how a game can be fair for everyone

© THE BIG QUESTION

Who is a game for?

Unit 1 · Sports and recreation

The Shared Garden · Bento, Matilde, Tomás, Leonor, Gonçalo and Inês

Bento has chalked a line on the stones and set up six wooden skittles. Everyone wants to play. Almost at once there is an argument, and it is a good one: Leonor is the smallest, so should she stand closer to the skittles than Bento?

Hold on to that question. It comes back on every page of this unit.

© WHAT THIS UNIT IS FOR

1. Name games you play, and say what each one needs.

Some games need a ball. Some need six people. Some need nothing but a wall.

2. Compare indoor and outdoor games, and say when each one suits.

Weather, space and how many players you have all change what you can play.

3. Describe traditional games from Portugal and from other countries.

Old games travel, change their names, and turn up again somewhere else.

4. Explain what exercise does to your body, using what you have measured.

You will count your own heartbeats before and after moving.

5. Play safely, and spot what makes a place safe or unsafe.

Checking the ground before you run is a skill, not fussing.

6. Work in a team, and say what a good team member actually does.

Passing, waiting your turn and cheering all count as playing.

7. Decide whether a game is fair, and change one rule to include more people.

This is the hardest one, and it is the point of the unit.

■ NEW WORDS

sport a game or activity with rules, played for exercise or to win recreation what you choose to do in your free time, to rest or enjoy yourself exercise moving your body so it grows stronger team a group who play on the same side and depend on each other rule an agreement about how a game is played fair giving everyone a real chance to join in and to do well traditional passed down over many years, from older people to younger ones

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.1

My favourite sport and game

● LOOK AROUND

Think of a game you played this week. Not on a screen: a game with your body, or with your hands. Who was with you? What did you need to play it?

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

A sport is a game with rules, played for exercise or to win. Football is a sport. So is swimming, and so is running.

A game can be smaller than that. Hopscotch is a game. So is hide and seek. You can invent a game in two minutes with a wall and a ball, and it will still have rules, because you and your friends will agree them as you go.

Every game needs some things and not others. Football needs a ball, some space and someone to play with. Hopscotch needs a flat piece of ground and something to draw with. Chess needs a board, and it needs you to sit still and think.

When you know what a game needs, you know when you can play it.

Six neighbours playing skittles on stony ground. Look at where each player is standing, and at who has not thrown yet.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write the name of your favourite game.
2. Write the three things you need to play it.
3. Ask two people in your class for their favourite game. Write both names down.
4. Was any answer the same as yours? Write yes or no.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.2

Indoor and outdoor games

🔄 DO YOU REMEMBER?

Name one game you can only play outdoors. Now name one you can play indoors.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

Some games need the outdoors. You cannot play football properly in a corridor, and you should not try.

Other games work better inside. Cards, board games and a game of memory need a flat surface and quiet, not a big field.

Three things usually decide which kind of game you can play:

- Space. How much room have you got, and is it safe to run in?
- Weather. Rain, wind and strong sun all change the answer.
- Players. Some games need eight people; some need one.

In January in Portugal an outdoor game may be cold and wet. In July at midday the sun is too strong to run about in, so many people play in the early evening instead, when it is cooler. Choosing the right game for the day is not giving up. It is thinking ahead.

The same afternoon, indoors and outdoors.
Look for what changed and what stayed the same.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write two games for a rainy day.
2. Write two games for a hot, sunny day.

3. Choose one of your rainy-day games. Write one rule you would change to play it outdoors.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Invent a game that can be played either indoors or outdoors. Write its name and its two most important rules.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.3

Traditional games around the world

◆ OUT IN THE WORLD

Inês has found a heavy metal disc in the shed and nobody can tell her what it is for. Bento knows at once. It is for malha, a game he played as a young badger: you throw the disc along the ground and try to knock down a wooden pin.

Leonor is unimpressed. "That is just skittles," she says. Bento says it is not. Matilde says they are both right, which annoys everybody.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

A traditional game is one that has been passed down for many years. Nobody invented it last week. It arrives from older people, and it changes a little every time it is handed on.

The same idea often turns up in different countries with different names and different equipment. Throwing something at a target is an idea a lot of people had.

Game	Where it is traditional	What you do
Malha	Portugal	Throw a metal disc along the ground at a wooden pin
Boules	France	Throw metal balls as close as you can to a small target ball
Kubb	Sweden	Throw wooden batons to knock over wooden blocks
Bocce	Italy	Roll balls towards a smaller ball on a flat court

Look down that last column. Four countries, four names, and very nearly one game.

✦ FROM THE POTTING SHED

The modern Olympic Games began in Athens in 1896. Some of the sports in them were already hundreds of years old, and some had not been invented yet.

Three traditional throwing games side by side. Look for what is the same in all three.

 ASK FIRST

Ask an adult at home or an adult at school which games they played when they were seven. Ask at a time that suits them, and listen to the whole answer before you write.

Write the name of one game they played. Then write one thing about it that surprised you.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write the name of a traditional game played where you live.
2. Write the name of a traditional game from another country.
3. Write one way the two games are alike.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.4

Why do we exercise?

● LOOK AROUND

Put two fingers on the side of your neck and keep still. Can you feel a small, steady beat? That is your heart, moving blood around your body while you sit perfectly still.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

Exercise is moving your body so that it grows stronger.

When you run, your muscles have to work harder, and working muscles need more oxygen. Oxygen arrives in your blood, and your heart is the pump. So your heart beats faster and you breathe faster. That is not something going wrong. It is your body doing exactly the right thing.

Exercise helps in ways you can feel and ways you cannot see:

- Your heart and lungs get stronger, so the same run feels easier next month.
- Your muscles and bones get stronger, so you can carry, climb and balance better.
- Sleep often comes more easily after a day with movement in it.
- Many people simply feel better afterwards, even when they did not want to start.

■ WATCH ME TRY ONE

Tomás wants to know how much his heart speeds up. Here is what he does.

1. He sits still for one whole minute, then counts the beats in his neck for 15 seconds. He counts 19.
2. He multiplies by 4, because there are four lots of 15 seconds in a minute. That is 76 beats a minute while resting.
3. He skips on the spot for one minute.
4. He counts again for 15 seconds. Now he counts 31. Multiplied by 4, that is 124 beats a minute.
5. He works out the difference: $124 - 76 = 48$ beats a minute faster.

Tomás writes one sentence underneath: my heart went 48 beats a minute faster after skipping for a minute.

A resting body and a running body, side by side. Look at what has changed in the second one.

• YOUR TURN

1. Sit still for a minute. Count your heartbeats for 15 seconds. Write the number.
2. Multiply by 4. Write your resting beats a minute.
3. Move for one minute: skip, jog on the spot, or step up and down. Ask your teacher which is best in your classroom.
4. Count again for 15 seconds, multiply by 4, and write the new number.
5. Work out the difference between the two numbers.
6. Write one sentence saying what you found out.

✦ FROM THE POTTING SHED

Your heart is a muscle, and like other muscles it gets stronger with use. That is why the same walk up the same hill feels easier after a few weeks of doing it.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.5

Playing safely

◆ OUT IN THE WORLD

Gonçalo will not let anyone start until he has walked the whole playing area. He finds a broken tile, a rake left lying with its teeth up, and a puddle. He moves the rake, points out the tile, and says the puddle is fine because everyone can see it.

Leonor calls him slow. Bento says Gonçalo has just saved somebody's ankle.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

Playing safely is not the opposite of playing hard. It is what lets you keep playing.

Before you start, three quick checks:

- The ground. Flat? Anything to trip on? Anything sharp?
- The space. Room to stop without hitting a wall, a road or another game?
- The kit. Laces tied, nothing loose, the right shoes for the surface?

While you play, two more:

- The rules. Everyone agreed them, so everyone follows them.
- Each other. If someone is hurt, the game stops. Every time.

A road is never a pitch, however good the surface looks. If you are not sure a place is safe, ask your teacher or an adult at school before you play there.

A playing area with three things a careful player would move first. Look for what Gonçalo found.

● YOUR TURN

1. Draw the place where you usually play at school.
2. Mark one safe spot with an S.
3. Mark one careful spot with a C, and write why in three words.
4. Write one rule you would put up on a sign there.

▲ DIG DEEPER

A new pupil joins your class and does not know the rules of the game everyone plays at break. Write the three sentences you would say to them, in order, so they can join in safely on the first day.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.6

Teamwork in sports

🔄 DO YOU REMEMBER?

Think of a time a team you were in did well. What did the other players do that helped?

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

A team is a group who play on the same side and depend on each other. That last part is what makes it a team and not just a crowd.

In a team game, the player with the ball is doing the obvious job. Everybody else is doing a job too:

- Moving into a space where a pass can reach them.
- Watching the player who is not being watched by anyone else.
- Saying something useful and short, like a name or "behind you".
- Waiting for their turn without sulking, which is harder than it sounds.

A team where one player does everything is usually losing, and definitely not enjoying itself.

◆ SEE IT THEIR WAY

Three neighbours, one game, three ideas about what went wrong.

Matilde: "We lost because nobody passed to me. I was free the whole time."

Tomás: "We lost because we had no plan. I did not know who to pass to, so I passed to whoever shouted."

Gonçalo: "We lost because Leonor never got the ball once. She stopped trying after five minutes, and I do not blame her."

All three are describing the same game. None of them is lying. Which one is talking about fairness?

A team game in the moment before a pass.
Look at the players who are not holding the ball.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write two things a good team member does when they do not have the ball.
2. Write one thing that makes a team worse, even if that player is skilful.
3. Who in the panel above is talking about fairness? Write the name and one reason.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.7

Sports in our community

● LOOK AROUND

Where can people play sport near you? Count the places. A pitch counts. So does a park, a court, a pool, a hall and a flat stretch of pavement with a wall.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

Your community is the people who live and work near you. Sport in a community needs three things: somewhere to play, someone to organise it, and people who turn up.

Somewhere to play might be a school hall in the evening, a village court, a municipal pool, or a green space by the river. Some places cost money to use and some are free, which matters a great deal to who can actually play.

Someone to organise it is often a club, a school, or a group of parents who take turns. Most sport in a small town runs on people doing unpaid jobs quietly.

And people who turn up. A pitch with nobody on it is not sport, it is a field.

A village sports court in use on a weekday evening. Look for who is playing and who is watching.

• YOUR TURN

1. List three places near you where people play sport.
2. Beside each one, write free or costs money, or write not sure.
3. Choose one place. Write one thing that would make it better for more people.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find out who looks after one sports place near you: the school, the town council, a club, or somebody else. Write what you found out and how you found it out.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.8

Different people, different sports

◆ OUT IN THE WORLD

Bento's shoulder aches in winter, so he throws underarm now. Gonçalo cannot see far, so his team calls his name before they pass. Leonor is the smallest, so at skittles she stands two paces closer than everyone else.

Nobody in the garden thinks any of this is unfair. It took them a while to get there.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

People's bodies are different, and they change over a lifetime. Sport is for all of those bodies, not only for the fastest ones.

Some sports are changed a little so more people can play:

- A ball with a bell inside it, so players who cannot see can hear where it is.
- Basketball played in wheelchairs, with the same hoop at the same height.
- Swimming races grouped so that people race others who move in a similar way.
- Standing closer, throwing underarm, or having a runner for someone who cannot run.

Changing a rule so somebody can join in is not making the game easier. It is making the game theirs as well as yours.

✦ FROM THE POTTING SHED

The first Paralympic Games were held in Rome in 1960. They now happen in the same year and the same host city as the Olympic Games.

Three sports adapted so more people can play. Look for what was changed in each one.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write the name of a game you play at school.
2. Write one rule of it.
3. Now change that rule so somebody who cannot run fast can play and enjoy it.
4. Write one sentence saying why your new rule is still a proper game.

👉 ASK FIRST

If somebody in your class plays a sport in a way that is new to you, you may ask them about it, kindly, once. Ask about the sport, not about their body. If they would rather not talk about it, say thank you and stop there.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.9

Recreation and free time

DO YOU REMEMBER?

What did you do yesterday, after school, when nobody told you what to do?

HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

Recreation is what you choose to do in your free time. Sport can be part of it. So can drawing, reading, music, cooking, building something, or sitting in the shade doing very little.

Free time is not wasted time. It is when you rest, and it is also when you find out what you like. Nobody discovers they love drawing during a maths lesson.

People need different amounts of quiet. Inês likes a busy afternoon with six people in it. Gonçalo likes one friend and a small job to do. Both of them have had a good afternoon.

One free afternoon, four different choices.
Look for who chose to be busy and who chose to be quiet.

● YOUR TURN

Fill in your own free-time record for yesterday. Use the 24 hour clock.

Time	What I chose to do	Busy or quiet?

1. Which of your choices was the most active?
2. Which one rested you most?
3. Write one thing you would like more time for.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.10

Weather and sports

● LOOK AROUND

Look out of the window right now. Write down one game you could play outside today, and one you could not.

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

Weather changes what you can play, how long you can play it, and what you need to take with you.

- Rain. Grass gets slippery and hard courts get worse. Some games simply move indoors.
- Heat. Strong sun in the middle of the day is dangerous for running about. Play early or late, keep to the shade, and drink water.
- Wind. A light ball goes where the wind sends it, not where you aimed it.
- Cold. Muscles need longer to warm up, so the first minutes matter more.

This is why sport looks different in different places. A sport that suits a cold wet country is not the one that suits a hot dry one, and both countries think their own choice is obvious.

■ WATCH ME TRY ONE

Inês keeps a weather note for four days and decides what to play.

Day	Weather	What Inês chose	Why
Monday	Heavy rain	Cards indoors	The court was under water
Tuesday	Bright, 31 °C at 14:00	Skittles at 19:00	Too hot at midday, fine in the evening
Wednesday	Windy	Skittles again	A heavy disc ignores the wind
Thursday	Cool, dry	Running race	Best running weather of the week

Notice Wednesday. Inês did not give up because of the wind. She chose a game the wind could not spoil.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write today's weather in three words.
2. Write one game that suits it, and one that does not.
3. Write what you would take with you to play outside today.
4. Wednesday above shows one way to beat the weather. Write it in your own words.

UNIT 1 - TOPIC 1.11

Healthy habits through sports

► HERE IS HOW IT WORKS

A habit is something you do so often that you stop deciding about it.

Sport brings a few habits with it, and they are worth keeping whether or not you ever win anything:

- Moving most days. Not a great deal at once. Often is what counts.
- Drinking water, especially in Portuguese summers, and before you feel thirsty.
- Warming up before you go hard, and slowing down at the end rather than stopping dead.
- Sleeping properly, because that is when a tired body actually repairs itself.
- Eating something real before a busy afternoon.

None of these needs a club, a kit or any money at all.

Four small habits that fit into one ordinary day. Look for the one that happens at night.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write the five habits above in the order you think matters most. Number them 1 to 5.
2. Choose one you already do. Write when you do it.
3. Choose one you would like to start. Write the day and time you will start it.

▲ DIG DEEPER

Design a five-day movement plan for someone in your class who does not enjoy sport. Rules: nothing that costs money, nothing that needs a team, and no more than fifteen minutes on any day.

Day	What they do	How long
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday

Then write one sentence explaining why you think they might actually do it.

★ ALONG THE WAY

The fairest game in the school. Work in a group of three or four, over several lessons.

1. Choose one game that people already play at your school.
2. Watch it once, properly, without joining in. Write down who plays, who does not, and who gets the ball most.

3. Ask two people who do not usually play why they do not. Ask kindly, and write their answers as they said them.
4. Change exactly one rule, to include more people.
5. Try your new version with your group. Play it twice.
6. Report back in three sentences: what you changed, what happened, and what you would change next.

You are marked on the thinking, not on winning:

What we look for	Getting there	Done well
Watching	You noted who played	You noted who did not play, and how often
Asking	You asked someone	You wrote their answer in their own words
Changing	You changed a rule	Your change was small and it worked
Reporting	You said what happened	You said what you would do next, and why

◆ HOW DID IT GROW?

Colour one circle for each line. Be honest: this page is for you, not for a mark.

I can	Not yet	Nearly	Yes
Name games I play and say what they need
Say when an indoor game suits better than an outdoor one
Describe a traditional game from Portugal and one from elsewhere
Explain what exercise does to my heart, using my own numbers
Check a place is safe before I play
Say what a good team member does without the ball
Change a rule so more people can join in

☒ WHAT I CAN DO NOW

☐ MY NOTES

Write the answer to the question Bento's game started with, now that you have finished the unit.

Who is a game for?

UNIT 2

2

Rich and poor

Needs, wants and fairness

◎ IN THIS UNIT, YOU WILL

- ✓ Tell needs from wants.
- ✓ Describe different homes and jobs with respect.
- ✓ Explain how communities can help one another.
- ✓ Talk about saving and spending wisely.

◆ BIG QUESTION

What do people need to live well, and how can communities help?

Keep this question in mind. Good Global Perspectives work asks, listens, compares viewpoints, then chooses a kind action.

UNIT 2 - TOPIC 2.1

What do we need to live?

People need clean water, food, shelter, safety, care and learning. Draw a six-petal live-well flower.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about what do we need to live? and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 2 - TOPIC 2.2

Needs and wants

Needs keep us safe. Wants are extras. Sort ten items into needs and wants, then discuss one item that depends on situation.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about needs and wants and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 2 - TOPIC 2.3

Different homes around the world

Homes differ. Describe with respect using same, different and I wonder stems.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about different homes around the world and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.

2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 2 - TOPIC 2.4

Jobs and helping families

Jobs help families meet needs. Interview an adult about one helpful task in their work.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about jobs and helping families and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.

4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 2 - TOPIC 2.5

Communities helping together

Communities help through shared projects. Design a class action that helps without shaming anyone.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about communities helping together and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 2 - TOPIC 2.6

Saving and spending wisely

Plan a pretend 10 euro gift: save, spend, share. Explain your split.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about saving and spending wisely and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

Project: Enquiry action

Big question: What do people need to live well, and how can communities help?

Work in a small team for this unit project.

Plan

1. Choose one focus topic from this unit and say why it matters to your class.
2. Write a clear enquiry question (not a yes/no question if you can avoid it).
3. List the evidence you will collect from at least two sources (people, observation, simple data, map, photo with permission).
4. Name two viewpoints you will compare before you decide an action.

Do

1. Collect the evidence and keep a simple log (date, what you found, who said or showed it).
2. Compare the two viewpoints in a table: same / different / still wondering.
3. Agree one action idea that is kind, practical, safe and fair.

Share

1. Present a one-page poster or talk (about two minutes): question, evidence, viewpoints, action, next step.
2. Ask the class one question so they can help you improve.

Reflect

1. Each team member writes three lines: what I learned / what surprised me / what I would change next time.

☒ I CAN

Word bank: Keep these words

Copy five words from this unit into your word bank. For each word write: meaning, a sentence, and a sketch or symbol.

Debate corner: Two sides, one table

Work in pairs. Choose a fair question from this unit that has more than one reasonable answer.

1. Person A argues for one viewpoint for one minute. Person B only listens.
2. Swap: Person B argues a different viewpoint for one minute.
3. Together, write three lines: what we agree / what we still disagree / what evidence would help.
4. Share one sentence with the class that shows respect for both sides.

Local link: Portugal and beyond

Connect this unit to life near you and to one place beyond Portugal.

1. Local: write one example from your school, street, town or family (no private details).
2. Beyond: write one example from another country or global community (from news, a book, or a person you may ask with permission).
3. Same and different: two bullet points for each.
4. Kind action: one small action that helps both a local and a wider community need.

Term 1 review

Term 1 review: Units 1 and 2

Look back at Units 1 and 2. Use full sentences and give reasons.

Check what you know

1. What is one need and one want you can explain clearly?
2. How can sport help a community include more people?
3. Describe one kind way a community can help without shaming anyone.
4. Give two viewpoints on spending a gift of money.
5. What evidence would show that a playground is used fairly?

Mixed enquiry

1. Choose one big idea from this term. Write a short paragraph (five to seven sentences) with: a clear claim, two pieces of evidence or examples, and one other viewpoint.
2. Design a class action for next week linked to this term. Include: aim, who helps, who is helped, safety, and how you will check success.
3. Self-mark: which skill was strongest this term (research, analysis, evaluation, reflection, collaboration, communication)? Which skill needs practice? Give one example for each.
4. Portfolio page: glue or draw one piece of evidence from this term. Caption it with date, what it shows, and why it matters.
5. Teach-back: explain one topic from this term to a partner as if they missed the lessons. Your partner writes two questions; you answer them.

☒ I CAN (TERM 1)

UNIT 3

3

Digital world

Devices, learning and staying safe

◎ IN THIS UNIT, YOU WILL

- ✓ Name digital devices and what they are for.
- ✓ Use technology for learning carefully.
- ✓ Stay safer online and be kind online.
- ✓ Think about screen time and future technology.

◆ BIG QUESTION

How can technology help us without harming us?

Keep this question in mind. Good Global Perspectives work asks, listens, compares viewpoints, then chooses a kind action.

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.1

What is the digital world?

The digital world is devices, networks and information. List five digital things you used yesterday and why.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about what is the digital world? and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.2

Digital devices around us

Devices are tools with rules. Write a class charter with three we will and three we will not lines.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about digital devices around us and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.3

Technology around the world

Access is uneven. Write two viewpoints on homework when internet is shared or limited.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about technology around the world and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.4

Learning with technology

Technology can help learning and also distract. List two benefits and two risks of one learning tool.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about learning with technology and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.5

Staying safe online

Stay safer online: private details, permission for photos, tell a trusted adult. Role-play three scenes.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about staying safe online and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.6

Being kind online (digital citizenship)

Digital citizenship is kindness and honesty online. Rewrite a rude message into a respectful opinion.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about being kind online (digital citizenship) and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.7

Screen time control

Balance screen time with sleep, outdoor play and talk. Plan one evening swap that improves rest.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about screen time control and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 3 - TOPIC 3.8

Designing the technology of the future

Design future technology that solves a community need without new harm. Add one safety rule.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about designing the technology of the future and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

Project: Enquiry action

Big question: How can technology help us without harming us?

Work in a small team for this unit project.

Plan

1. Choose one focus topic from this unit and say why it matters to your class.
2. Write a clear enquiry question (not a yes/no question if you can avoid it).
3. List the evidence you will collect from at least two sources (people, observation, simple data, map, photo with permission).
4. Name two viewpoints you will compare before you decide an action.

Do

1. Collect the evidence and keep a simple log (date, what you found, who said or showed it).
2. Compare the two viewpoints in a table: same / different / still wondering.
3. Agree one action idea that is kind, practical, safe and fair.

Share

1. Present a one-page poster or talk (about two minutes): question, evidence, viewpoints, action, next step.
2. Ask the class one question so they can help you improve.

Reflect

1. Each team member writes three lines: what I learned / what surprised me / what I would change next time.

☒ I CAN

Word bank: Keep these words

Copy five words from this unit into your word bank. For each word write: meaning, a sentence, and a sketch or symbol.

Debate corner: Two sides, one table

Work in pairs. Choose a fair question from this unit that has more than one reasonable answer.

1. Person A argues for one viewpoint for one minute. Person B only listens.
 2. Swap: Person B argues a different viewpoint for one minute.
 3. Together, write three lines: what we agree / what we still disagree / what evidence would help.
 4. Share one sentence with the class that shows respect for both sides.
-

Local link: Portugal and beyond

Connect this unit to life near you and to one place beyond Portugal.

1. Local: write one example from your school, street, town or family (no private details).
2. Beyond: write one example from another country or global community (from news, a book, or a person you may ask with permission).
3. Same and different: two bullet points for each.
4. Kind action: one small action that helps both a local and a wider community need.

UNIT 4

4

Improving communication

Speaking, listening and understanding

◎ IN THIS UNIT, YOU WILL

- ✓ Explain what communication is.
- ✓ Practise speaking and listening.
- ✓ Notice verbal and non-verbal messages.
- ✓ Link feelings to how we communicate.
- ✓ Solve small problems through talk.

◆ BIG QUESTION

How can better communication solve problems?

Keep this question in mind. Good Global Perspectives work asks, listens, compares viewpoints, then chooses a kind action.

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.1

What is communication?

Communication shares meaning. Give one example of clear talk that prevented a school problem.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about what is communication? and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.2

Speaking and listening

Practise 60-second listening: one speaks, one retells the main idea.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about speaking and listening and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.

2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.3

Verbal and non-verbal communication

Verbal is words; non-verbal is face, hands and posture. Act a message without words.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about verbal and non-verbal communication and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.

4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.4

Feelings and communication

Feelings ride with messages. Rename mad more precisely and script a better sentence.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about feelings and communication and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.5

Communication around the world

Learn three greetings from three languages in your community and when to use them.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about communication around the world and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.6

Solving problems through communication

Use: When X happened, I felt Y, I need Z. Practise on a playground disagreement.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about solving problems through communication and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 4 - TOPIC 4.7

Digital communication

Digital messages lack tone. Rewrite a chat that could be misread so it is clear and kind.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about digital communication and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

Project: Enquiry action

Big question: How can better communication solve problems?

Work in a small team for this unit project.

Plan

1. Choose one focus topic from this unit and say why it matters to your class.
2. Write a clear enquiry question (not a yes/no question if you can avoid it).
3. List the evidence you will collect from at least two sources (people, observation, simple data, map, photo with permission).
4. Name two viewpoints you will compare before you decide an action.

Do

1. Collect the evidence and keep a simple log (date, what you found, who said or showed it).
2. Compare the two viewpoints in a table: same / different / still wondering.
3. Agree one action idea that is kind, practical, safe and fair.

Share

1. Present a one-page poster or talk (about two minutes): question, evidence, viewpoints, action, next step.
2. Ask the class one question so they can help you improve.

Reflect

1. Each team member writes three lines: what I learned / what surprised me / what I would change next time.

☒ I CAN

Word bank: Keep these words

Copy five words from this unit into your word bank. For each word write: meaning, a sentence, and a sketch or symbol.

Debate corner: Two sides, one table

Work in pairs. Choose a fair question from this unit that has more than one reasonable answer.

1. Person A argues for one viewpoint for one minute. Person B only listens.
2. Swap: Person B argues a different viewpoint for one minute.
3. Together, write three lines: what we agree / what we still disagree / what evidence would help.
4. Share one sentence with the class that shows respect for both sides.

Local link: Portugal and beyond

Connect this unit to life near you and to one place beyond Portugal.

1. Local: write one example from your school, street, town or family (no private details).
2. Beyond: write one example from another country or global community (from news, a book, or a person you may ask with permission).
3. Same and different: two bullet points for each.
4. Kind action: one small action that helps both a local and a wider community need.

Term 2 review

Term 2 review: Units 3 and 4

Look back at Units 3 and 4. Use full sentences and give reasons.

Check what you know

1. Name three online safety habits.
2. What is digital citizenship in one sentence?
3. How can non-verbal signals help or confuse communication?
4. Rewrite a harsh message into a clear, kind one.
5. How can technology help learning without taking all free time?

Mixed enquiry

1. Choose one big idea from this term. Write a short paragraph (five to seven sentences) with: a clear claim, two pieces of evidence or examples, and one other viewpoint.
2. Design a class action for next week linked to this term. Include: aim, who helps, who is helped, safety, and how you will check success.
3. Self-mark: which skill was strongest this term (research, analysis, evaluation, reflection, collaboration, communication)? Which skill needs practice? Give one example for each.
4. Portfolio page: glue or draw one piece of evidence from this term. Caption it with date, what it shows, and why it matters.
5. Teach-back: explain one topic from this term to a partner as if they missed the lessons. Your partner writes two questions; you answer them.

☒ I CAN (TERM 2)

UNIT 5

5

Moving goods and people

Travel, trade and caring for the planet

© IN THIS UNIT, YOU WILL

- ✓ Describe ways people travel.
- ✓ Explain how goods move from place to place.
- ✓ Compare land, water and air transport.
- ✓ Talk about safe travel and greener choices.
- ✓ Imagine future transport carefully.

◆ BIG QUESTION

How do people and goods move, and how can travel be safer and greener?

Keep this question in mind. Good Global Perspectives work asks, listens, compares viewpoints, then chooses a kind action.

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.1

Ways we travel

Survey how classmates travel today and show results in a simple pictogram.

◆ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about ways we travel and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.2

Moving goods

Trace one everyday item from origin to you in four steps.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about moving goods and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.

2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.3

Land, water and air transport

Compare land, water and air transport for speed, cost and pollution in child language.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about land, water and air transport and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.

4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.4

Safe travel

Make a five-rule travel safety poster for Year 1 pupils.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about safe travel and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.5

Transport around the world

Pick two cities and one fitting transport for each. Explain why.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about transport around the world and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.6

Helping the environment

Propose one greener school travel idea that stays fair to people who live far away.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about helping the environment and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.7

Community helpers and transport

Write a thank-you note to a community travel helper.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about community helpers and transport and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 5 - TOPIC 5.8

Design future transport

Sketch fairer cleaner transport for your town in 2040 and label who it helps first.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about design future transport and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

Project: Enquiry action

Big question: How do people and goods move, and how can travel be safer and greener?

Work in a small team for this unit project.

Plan

1. Choose one focus topic from this unit and say why it matters to your class.
2. Write a clear enquiry question (not a yes/no question if you can avoid it).
3. List the evidence you will collect from at least two sources (people, observation, simple data, map, photo with permission).
4. Name two viewpoints you will compare before you decide an action.

Do

1. Collect the evidence and keep a simple log (date, what you found, who said or showed it).
2. Compare the two viewpoints in a table: same / different / still wondering.
3. Agree one action idea that is kind, practical, safe and fair.

Share

1. Present a one-page poster or talk (about two minutes): question, evidence, viewpoints, action, next step.
2. Ask the class one question so they can help you improve.

Reflect

1. Each team member writes three lines: what I learned / what surprised me / what I would change next time.

☒ I CAN

Word bank: Keep these words

Copy five words from this unit into your word bank. For each word write: meaning, a sentence, and a sketch or symbol.

Debate corner: Two sides, one table

Work in pairs. Choose a fair question from this unit that has more than one reasonable answer.

1. Person A argues for one viewpoint for one minute. Person B only listens.
2. Swap: Person B argues a different viewpoint for one minute.
3. Together, write three lines: what we agree / what we still disagree / what evidence would help.
4. Share one sentence with the class that shows respect for both sides.

Local link: Portugal and beyond

Connect this unit to life near you and to one place beyond Portugal.

1. Local: write one example from your school, street, town or family (no private details).
2. Beyond: write one example from another country or global community (from news, a book, or a person you may ask with permission).
3. Same and different: two bullet points for each.
4. Kind action: one small action that helps both a local and a wider community need.

UNIT 6

6

Family, friends, community and culture

Belonging, respect and celebration

◎ IN THIS UNIT, YOU WILL

- ✓ Describe families with respect for difference.
- ✓ Explain what good friendship looks like.
- ✓ Notice community helpers and school life.
- ✓ Celebrate traditions and respect cultures.

◆ BIG QUESTION

How do family, friends and culture help us belong?

Keep this question in mind. Good Global Perspectives work asks, listens, compares viewpoints, then chooses a kind action.

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.1

My family

Draw your family as a support map for learning, fun and comfort.

◆ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about my family and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

• YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.2

Different families around the world

Write three respectful questions about a family tradition.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about different families around the world and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.

2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.3

Being a good friend

Script a repair conversation after someone is left out.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about being a good friend and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.

4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.4

Our school and local community

Map five people or places that make your week work better.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about our school and local community and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

🔄 KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.5

Working together to build a caring community

Plan a micro-project with planner, doer and reporter roles.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about working together to build a caring community and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.6

Celebrations and traditions

Compare two celebrations: food, music, welcome and memory.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about celebrations and traditions and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

UNIT 6 - TOPIC 6.7

Respecting different cultures

Create a class respect charter with five promises.

✦ TALK FIRST

With a partner, say one thing you already know about respecting different cultures and one question you still have. Write both ideas in your notebook before you share with the class.

◆ IN REAL LIFE

Imagine this topic in a Portuguese primary school, a local street, or a family home. Who is involved? What choice must someone make? What could go well, and what could go wrong if nobody listens? Write four short lines: people / place / choice / risk.

◆ PERSPECTIVES

Whose viewpoint should we hear? Name three people who might see this differently (for example, a child, a parent, a teacher, a neighbour, a shop worker, a coach). For each person, write one sentence starting with "They might care about..."

↻ KEY IDEA

A Global Perspectives answer is stronger when it uses evidence and more than one viewpoint, not only "I think" without reasons.

● YOUR TURN

1. Write five key words from this topic. Define three of them in your own words.
2. Note two pieces of evidence you could collect (tally, interview question, map mark, observation, simple photo with permission).
3. Write one fair question you could ask someone about this topic.
4. Choose one kind action linked to this topic for this week. Say who it helps and how you will know it helped.
5. Stretch: explain this topic to a Year 1 pupil in three short sentences.

→ GO A LITTLE FURTHER

Find or invent a tiny case study (three to five sentences) set in Portugal or another country. Mark one fact, one opinion, and one open question in different colours or labels.

▲ CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Answer in full sentences in your notebook.

1. What is the main idea of this topic in one sentence?
2. Name one piece of evidence that would support a claim about this topic.
3. Name one risk if people ignore other viewpoints here.
4. What will you do differently this week because of this topic?

Project: Enquiry action

Big question: How do family, friends and culture help us belong?

Work in a small team for this unit project.

Plan

1. Choose one focus topic from this unit and say why it matters to your class.
2. Write a clear enquiry question (not a yes/no question if you can avoid it).
3. List the evidence you will collect from at least two sources (people, observation, simple data, map, photo with permission).
4. Name two viewpoints you will compare before you decide an action.

Do

1. Collect the evidence and keep a simple log (date, what you found, who said or showed it).
2. Compare the two viewpoints in a table: same / different / still wondering.
3. Agree one action idea that is kind, practical, safe and fair.

Share

1. Present a one-page poster or talk (about two minutes): question, evidence, viewpoints, action, next step.
2. Ask the class one question so they can help you improve.

Reflect

1. Each team member writes three lines: what I learned / what surprised me / what I would change next time.

☒ I CAN

Word bank: Keep these words

Copy five words from this unit into your word bank. For each word write: meaning, a sentence, and a sketch or symbol.

Debate corner: Two sides, one table

Work in pairs. Choose a fair question from this unit that has more than one reasonable answer.

1. Person A argues for one viewpoint for one minute. Person B only listens.
2. Swap: Person B argues a different viewpoint for one minute.
3. Together, write three lines: what we agree / what we still disagree / what evidence would help.
4. Share one sentence with the class that shows respect for both sides.

Local link: Portugal and beyond

Connect this unit to life near you and to one place beyond Portugal.

1. Local: write one example from your school, street, town or family (no private details).
2. Beyond: write one example from another country or global community (from news, a book, or a person you may ask with permission).
3. Same and different: two bullet points for each.
4. Kind action: one small action that helps both a local and a wider community need.

Term 3 review

Term 3 review: Units 5 and 6

Look back at Units 5 and 6. Use full sentences and give reasons.

Check what you know

1. Compare two ways goods might travel to a shop.
2. Suggest one greener travel idea that stays fair to people who live far away.
3. What makes a good friend when someone is left out?
4. How can a class respect different cultures in a celebration?
5. Design one community action and name three roles on the team.

Mixed enquiry

1. Choose one big idea from this term. Write a short paragraph (five to seven sentences) with: a clear claim, two pieces of evidence or examples, and one other viewpoint.
2. Design a class action for next week linked to this term. Include: aim, who helps, who is helped, safety, and how you will check success.
3. Self-mark: which skill was strongest this term (research, analysis, evaluation, reflection, collaboration, communication)? Which skill needs practice? Give one example for each.
4. Portfolio page: glue or draw one piece of evidence from this term. Caption it with date, what it shows, and why it matters.
5. Teach-back: explain one topic from this term to a partner as if they missed the lessons. Your partner writes two questions; you answer them.

☒ I CAN (TERM 3)

Word list

Word list inputs - Global Perspectives Year 3

> Input file. The printed word list is generated from the book so it cannot drift > from the body text (BOOK-ANATOMY). Words are added as each unit is authored, in > the wording a seven-year-old meets on the page. > > Scope on 2026-08-13: Unit 1 authored. Units 2 to 6 pending.

Unit 1 • Sports and recreation

community the people who live and work near you exercise moving your body so that it grows stronger fair giving everyone a real chance to join in and to do well game something you play, with rules you and the other players agree habit something you do so often that you stop deciding about it heartbeat one push of your heart, sending blood around your body muscle a part of your body that pulls to make you move oxygen the part of the air your body needs, carried in your blood recreation what you choose to do in your free time, to rest or to enjoy yourself rule an agreement about how a game is played sport a game or activity with rules, played for exercise or to win team a group who play on the same side and depend on each other traditional passed down over many years, from older people to younger ones warm up to move gently before you move hard, so your body is ready

Sources and references

Sources and references inputs - Global Perspectives Year 3

> Input file. The printed section is generated from the book. > Every fact, date and figure printed in a From the potting shed panel or in > teaching prose is logged here as it is written, per Hub behaviour rule 6 and > `rules/all/04-MEDIA-AND-QR.md` . > Verification status, stated plainly: the entries below are long-established > published facts, and each names the body that holds the record. They have not > yet been checked against those bodies' live pages from this machine. That check > is owed before READY and is listed in `07-REVIEW.md` .

Unit 1 • Sports and recreation

Where it appears	Claim as printed	Holder of record
1.3 From the potting shed	The modern Olympic Games began in Athens in 1896	International Olympic Committee, olympics.com
1.3 teaching table	Malha is traditional in Portugal; boules in France; kubb in Sweden; bocce in Italy	Portuguese traditional games are documented by the Federação Portuguesa de Jogos Tradicionais
1.4 teaching prose	Working muscles need more oxygen, so the heart beats faster and breathing quickens	Standard physiology; any Key Stage science reference
1.4 From the potting shed	The heart is a muscle and strengthens with use	Standard physiology
1.8 From the potting shed	The first Paralympic Games were held in Rome in 1960, and they now share the host city and year with the Olympic Games	International Paralympic Committee, paralympic.org
1.10 worked example	31 °C at 14:00 as a Portuguese summer afternoon temperature	Illustrative, not a measured record. Presented as one character's own note, not as a climate statistic

Notes on facts deliberately not printed

- No percentage of body water, no daily step counts and no "children should exercise N minutes" figure appears in Unit 1. Each would need a current citable source and each varies by authority and by age, so none is stated rather than approximated.

- Football pitch dimensions were drafted and then cut: the range differs between competition rules, and the topic did not need the number.

Answers

Most of this book asks what you think, and those answers are yours. Where a question has one right answer, it is printed here. Where it does not, you will find what a good answer needs, so you can mark your own work honestly.

Try first. An answer you have argued your way to is worth ten you have copied.

Unit 1 • Sports and recreation

1.1 My favourite sport and game 1 to 3. Your own answers. A good answer to question 2 names three things that are really needed, not things that would be nice: a ball, a flat space and one other player is a good answer for football; new boots is not.

1. Yes or no. Either is correct. The point is that classes rarely agree.

1.2 Indoor and outdoor games 1 and 2. Your own answers. A rainy-day game must work in a small space; a hot-day game must work in shade or in the early evening.

1. Any sensible change to make an indoor game work outside, for example using a heavier ball so wind does not carry it, or chalking the board onto the ground.

1.3 Traditional games around the world 1 and 2. Your own answers. Malha is the expected Portuguese example, and boules, kubb or bocce are expected for another country.

1. A good answer names the shared idea: in all of them you throw or roll something at a target, and the closest or the one that knocks the target down wins.

1.4 Why do we exercise? 1 to 5. Your own numbers. Check the method, not the size of the number: the count for 15 seconds multiplied by 4 gives beats a minute, and the difference is the second number take away the first. Nearly everybody's heart rate goes up after a minute of moving. If yours went down, count again while sitting still first.

1. A good sentence says what changed and by how much, for example my heart went 40 beats a minute faster after skipping.

1.5 Playing safely 1 to 3. Your own map. A careful spot must be a real one: a step, a wall close to the pitch, a slope, a drain, a gate onto a road.

1. Any rule that a player could actually follow, in a few words.

Dig deeper. Three sentences, in this order: how you win, what you must not do, and what to do if someone is hurt. Any order of the first two is fine as long as stopping when someone is hurt is included.

1.6 Teamwork in sports

1. Two of: move into a space, watch an unmarked player, call out something short and useful, wait for a turn, cheer a team mate.
2. A good answer describes a player who never passes, ignores the rules, or blames others, and says why skill does not make up for it.
3. Gonçalo. He is the only one who talks about somebody being left out rather than about losing. Matilde is talking about herself and Tomás is talking about a plan.

1.7 Sports in our community 1 and 2. Your own list. Not sure is an honest answer and better than a guess.

1. Any improvement that would help more people, such as lights so it can be used after dark, a lower hoop, a free session, or a ramp.

1.8 Different people, different sports 1 and 2. Your own game and rule. 3 and 4. A good change keeps the game a real game. Standing closer, throwing underarm, having a runner, or a ball with a bell in it are all good answers. "Letting them win" is not: it changes the result rather than the rules, and it is not fair to anybody.

1.9 Recreation and free time 1 to 3. Your own record. The most active choice and the most restful one may be the same activity for different people, and that is not a mistake.

1.10 Weather and sports 1 to 3. Your own answers, matching today's real weather.

1. A good answer says that Inês chose a game the weather could not spoil, instead of giving up on playing.

1.11 Healthy habits through sports 1 to 3. Your own order and your own choices. There is no correct order, but you should be able to say why your first one is first.

Dig deeper. A good plan has: nothing that costs money, nothing needing a team, nothing longer than fifteen minutes, and a last sentence that gives a real reason this particular person might do it, such as she likes her dog, so walking it counts.

For teachers

The book. Global Perspectives, Year 3, Student Book. Six units, 47 topics from the scheme of work, three term review spreads, and an answers section. Written for ages 7 to 8 in British English, with Portuguese contexts, euros, metric units and the 24 hour clock.

Scope of this printing. Unit 1 is authored to the current standard. Units 2 to 6 are pending and are listed in `06-SCHEME-MAP.md`, which is the authority for what the finished book must cover. The build reports which units it contains, so a partial book cannot be mistaken for a finished one.

How a unit runs. Each unit opens with a plate and one big question, then states what the unit is for. Inside, topics are numbered so a page can be found and cited. Panels are tools, not a checklist: a topic takes the two or three it needs. The panel names, and what each is for, are printed in How to use this book at the front and recorded in `01-DESIGN.md`.

What Unit 1 assumes. Pupils can count in fours or multiply by 4, read a simple table, and use a 24 hour clock. Topic 1.4 asks pupils to find a pulse; some will not manage it at the neck and should try the inside of the wrist, or count breaths instead, which shows the same effect.

Two topics need a word before you start. Topic 1.8 discusses adapted sport and disability. The rule the book teaches is to ask about the sport, never about somebody's body, and to accept a no. Topic 1.7 asks which local places cost money, which can touch on family income; the book keeps this at the level of places rather than families, and "not sure" is offered as a valid answer throughout.

Enquiry outside the classroom. Three activities send pupils to ask a real person a question. The Ask first panel carries the protocol: ask the teacher first, choose a good moment, accept a refusal, say thank you. Please check the questions before they are asked.

The unit project takes several lessons and is marked on the thinking rather than on the result. Groups of three or four watch a real playground game, ask two non-players why they do not join, change exactly one rule, and report what happened. The rubric is printed with the project.

Curriculum mapping to the scheme of work sits in `06-SCHEME-MAP.md`, which lists every topic in the order the scheme sets. Any wording changed from the scheme is listed there with the reason.