INTRODUCTION

How this book works

This is a book for a child who is learning to read and write with growing confidence. In this first unit your child will talk about where they live, learn words about the sea, read a story about a little blue boat, and write sentences of their own.

How to help

- Work together. Read the page aloud, then let your child lead.
- Talk lots. The questions start conversations, they do not test.
- Keep it fun. Short, happy sessions beat long, tired ones.

A note for grown-ups

This book follows the spirit of an international primary programme, interpreted afresh for Prime School. Every unit grows new skills out of a topic children already care about, and finishes with something to make, draw or write.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Reading the page

Each section follows the same rhythm, so you always know where you are.

How to work

Take your time and look at the pictures: they are there to help you. When you see a new word, say it out loud. In Talking time there are no wrong answers, only good ideas.

GETTING READY

Before Unit 1

You do not need much: a pencil, some crayons, a notebook, and someone to work with.

Your toolkit

- Your eyes, for looking carefully at the pictures.
- Your voice, for reading out loud and sharing ideas.

- Your notebook, for writing and drawing what you find.

A little warm-up

- 1 What do you already know about this topic?
- 2 What would you most like to find out?
- 3 Who could you ask if you got stuck?

These are exactly the things Unit 1 will help you with. When you can answer them, you are ready to begin.

UNIT 1 • PART 3

A story to share

Read this story with a grown-up.

“ STORY • 'THE LITTLE BLUE BOAT' ”

The little blue boat sat on the sand. Every morning, Rita and her mother pushed it into the water. Splash! Off they went.

One day the wind blew hard. The waves went up and down, up and down. "Hold on!" said Mother. Rita held on tight.

Then the wind stopped. The sea went flat and quiet. Rita looked in the net. Three silver fish! "Well done, little blue boat," she said.

- 1 What colour was the boat?
- 2 Who went in the boat with Rita?
- 3 What did Rita find in the net?
- 4 How do you think Rita felt at the end? Why?

🔄 REMEMBER!

Start every sentence with a capital letter. End it with a full stop.
