Novos amigos na escola

É o primeiro dia do Level 2. O Leo entra na sala e vê um menino novo.

It is the first day of Level 2. Leo enters the room and sees a new boy.

— Olá! Eu chamo-me Leo. E tu?

— Hi! My name is Leo. And you?

— Eu chamo-me Amir. Sou do Paquistão. E tu, de onde és?

— My name is Amir. I am from Pakistan. And you, where are you from?

— Sou de Portugal... e também de muitos sítios! — ri a Sofia.

— I am from Portugal... and from many places! — Sofia laughs.

A Mia diz: — Nós falamos português juntos. Vamos ser amigos?

Mia says: — We speak Portuguese together. Shall we be friends?

O Pip abana o rabo. Missão cumprida: um novo amigo!

Pip wags his tail. Mission complete: a new friend!

COMPREHENSION · COMPREENSÃO

1) Who is new? 2) Where is Amir from? 3) What do they want to do together?

DICA DO PIP

Pip collects nationalities like stamps — write yours for him!

SUBJECT PRONOUNS IN REAL TALK

Eu sou · Tu és · Ele/Ela é · Nós somos · Eles/Elas são. We meet them inside sentences, not in a lonely list.

FIND IN THE STORY

Circle eu / tu / nós in the adventure story. Rewrite one line with your name.

Let's Write · Vamos escrever

1. Write “My new friend” (5–8 sentences): name, country, languages, favourite colour, one question you asked.
2. Include: Eu chamo-me... / Ele/Ela é... / Nós somos amigos.
3. Draw your friend and label in Portuguese.

WRITING LADDER

Level 2 goal: short paragraphs, not only single words. Use a model sentence frame first.

Dia de compras

No mercado, a Sofia lê a lista: pão, maçãs, queijo e sumo.

At the market, Sofia reads the list: bread, apples, cheese and juice.

— Quanto custa o pão? — pergunta o Leo.

— How much is the bread? — Leo asks.

— Custa um euro e cinquenta — responde o vendedor.

— It costs one euro fifty — answers the seller.

A Mia diz: — Queria meio quilo de maçãs, por favor.

Mia says: — I would like half a kilo of apples, please.

Amir paga e diz: — Obrigado! Fica com o troco.

Amir pays and says: — Thank you! Keep the change. (or: Here is the money.)

O Pip tenta “comprar” um bolo com um sorriso. Não resulta... mas quase!

Pip tries to “buy” a cake with a smile. It doesn’t work... but almost!

COMPREHENSION · COMPREENSÃO

Aventura com o Pip

Uma manhã, o Pip desaparece com um mapa na boca.

One morning, Pip disappears with a map in his mouth.

No chão há pistas: uma pena, uma chave pequena e um bilhete.

On the floor there are clues: a feather, a small key and a ticket.

— Primeiro o parque, depois a biblioteca — lê a Sofia.

— First the park, then the library — Sofia reads.

No parque encontram a segunda pista debaixo do banco.

In the park they find the second clue under the bench.

Na biblioteca, o bibliotecário sorri: — O Pip esteve aqui. Seguiu para o museu.

At the library, the librarian smiles: — Pip was here. He went to the museum.

No museu, o Pip abana o rabo ao pé de um quadro antigo. Missão: proteger a história!

At the museum, Pip wags his tail next to an old painting. Mission: protect history!

COMPREHENSION · COMPREENSÃO

A aventura do fim de semana

Na segunda-feira, a professora pergunta: — O que fizeste no fim de semana?

On Monday the teacher asks: — What did you do at the weekend?

O Leo responde: — Eu fui à praia com a minha família. Nadei e comi gelado.

Leo answers: — I went to the beach with my family. I swam and ate ice cream.

A Sofia diz: — Eu visitei a avó. Cozinhámos bolos e vimos um filme.

Sofia says: — I visited grandma. We cooked cakes and watched a film.

A Mia: — Eu joguei futebol no parque. Ganhámos o jogo!

Mia: — I played football in the park. We won the game!

Amir: — Eu li um livro em português. Foi difícil... mas divertido.

Amir: — I read a book in Portuguese. It was hard... but fun.

O Pip? Dormiu, correu, farejou e... “ajudou” a comer bolachas.

Pip? He slept, ran, sniffed and... “helped” eat biscuits.

COMPREHENSION · COMPREENSÃO

Match each friend to their weekend activity. Who found Portuguese reading hard but fun?
